

Julianna Krawiecki is celebrating her 10th year as a New Jersey public school Arts Educator this year. She is currently the Drama Teacher and Director of Theatre at Princeton High School. She was a music and theatre teacher at Manalapan-Englishtown Middle School for 6 years, and began teaching Drama for Princeton Public Schools at John Witherspoon Middle School before moving to the high school. Julianna earned her MA from NYU's Educational Theatre program and a BM from NYU's Music Education and Vocal Performance program. Julianna is a proud member of STANJ.