

Sofia Melfi has been acting for eight years. She dives into the challenge of each character she embodies as she strives to bring truthful behaviors into her work. Grounded in her training of both the Stanislavski Method and Uta Hagen techniques, she is able to dissect the innerworkings and behaviors of the roles she takes on. Most notable performances are Wendla Bergman in Spring Awakening, #13 in The Wolves, and Morticia Addams in The Addams Family. Sofia has participated in theatre competitions throughout her high school career earning her 1st Place at STANJ, Best Actress four years in a row at the NJ Thespians Festival in the Chapter Select category, and even an International Superior Medal at the International Thespians festival. She is currently pursuing admission into a BFA acting program.
